THE CROWN PRINCES OF EUROPE. (From the N. Y. Evening Post.)

Few of the crown princes of Europe are strong and healthy men. Several of them are not likely to live to ascend the thrones of their fathers. The Czarowitch of Rus-sia has been a chronic invalid almost from sia has been a chronic invalid almost from infancy, and at fifteen was hardly expected to reach manhood. His son and heir, too, is a sickly child. The only son of Sultan Abdul Aziz is consumptive. Dissipation in the various capitals of Europe has made the crown-prince of Egypt, born in 1853, old before his time.

The Count of Flanders, brother of King Leopold of Belgium, and presumptive heir of the throne, is nearly deaf and suffers from heart disease. The health of Crown Prince Frederick, of Denmark, too, is by no means good and his prospects for a short life are among the objections made to the proposed future union of the three Scandinavian kingdoms under his sceptre.

The Austrian Prince Rudolph, now thirteen years of age, has always been feeble, and is not likely to live long. The Crown-Prince of Germany is in vigorous health; but his friend and comrade, the Crown-Prince Albert, of Saxony, is sickly, and the heirs to the thrones of Mecklenburg, Baden and Hesse, are all feeble. Most of these princes are the descendants of the most stalwart warriors of the olden time; but no heritage of strength, it seems can be kept for it seems, can be kept from decay under the enervating life of modern kings. The princes, like the institution of royalty itself, grow feebler every generation.

CONSUMPTION.

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE BY DR. J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

THE CAUSE AND CURE OF CON-SUMPTION.—The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation, I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the solids of the body. Persons with direction thus impaired, having the Persons with digestion thus impaired, having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and howels from all diseased more and allows the torn all diseased more and allow which bowels from all diseased mucus and slime which are clogging these organs so that they cannot per-form their functions, and then rouse up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this pur-pose, the surest and best remedy is Schenck's and bowels of all the dead and morbid slime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and arouse it up to a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted. . The stomach, bowels, and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills; but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the or-gan is torpid and the appetite poor. In the bow-els, the lacteals are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schonck's Seawced Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and its use will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach sweet and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and creparameter to the to this important organ, and create a good, hearty appetite, and prepare the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains te cure most cases of Consumption is the free and persevering use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

The Pulmonic Syrup nourishes the system, purishes the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distributed to the diseased lungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles, and then assists Nature to expel all the diseased matter in the form of free expectoration, when once it ri-pens. It is then, by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption is to get up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and get strong. If a person has diseased lungs, a cavily or abecess there, the cavity cannot heal, the matter cannot ripen, so long as the system is below par. What is necessary to cure is a new order of things, a good appetite, a good mutrition, the bedy to grow in flesh and get fat; then Nature is helped, the cavities will fiend, the matter will ripen and be thrown off in large quantities, and the person regula health and strength. This is the true and only plan to core Consumption. and my patient is cured. and the person regain health and strength is the true and only plan to cure Consu-and if a person is very bad, if the lungs entirely destroyed, or even if one lung is gone, if there is enough virality let in 11 to heal up, there is hope.

I have seen many persons cured, with only one sound lung, live and enjoy life to a good old age. This is what Schenck's Medicines will do to cure Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, cold; keep in-doors in coel and damp weather; avoid night-air, and take out-door exercise only in a genial and warm surehine.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be carefully regard to taking cold while using my unditines, I do so for a special reason. A man who has but partially resovered from the effects of a bad cold is for more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely cured, and it is precisely the same in regard to Consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there imminent danger of a full return of the disease. Hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not genial and pleasunt. Confirmed Consumptives' lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my medicines consists in my ability to subdue inflammation instead of provoking it, as many of the faculty do. An inflamed lung cannot with safety to the patient be exposed to the bitting blasts of winter of the chilling winds of spring or auturns. It should be carefully shielded from all irritating inflamences. The atmost caution should to observed in this particular, as without it a cure under almost any circumstances is an impossibility.

The person should be kept on a wholesome and nutritions diet, and all the medicines continued until the body has restered to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years, with on large mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.

About the 1st of October, I expect to take possession of my new building at the natural can be easily cured by a strict observance of the same.

THE ALDINE.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872 FIFTH YEAR. A Representative and Champion of Amercan Art. THE ALDINE: An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed &

be the handsomest Paper in the World.

World,

"Give my love to the artist workmen of PHE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has lways been for usefulness,"—Henry Ward BecAur THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or femaly interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals, it is an olegant miscellaney of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic sk'll, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its french, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound at the close of the year While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with rivals of of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique add original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volume for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the

for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the editions of 1871, is already examined, and it is now a scarce as well at valuable book.

NEW FEATURES FOR 1872.

Art Department.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced, has convinced the publishers of TER ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and heartily support any sincere effort to elevate the tone and standard of illustrated publications. That so many weakly wicked sheets exist and thrive is not evidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his ewn than of the taste of the contrary. As guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the tollowing eminent American attists:

W. T. Richards, Granville Persins, W. Harr.

W. Harr.

W. Harr.

Y. O. C. Darley,

Avo. Witt.

James H. Beard,

J. How.

These pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALBINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

Literary Department.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearance may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings, it is only necertary to state, that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been entrusted to Ma. RICHARD HENRY STODDARD, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

The Volume for 1872
will contain nearly 800 pages, and about 250 fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, avery third number will contain a beautiful tinted picture on plate baper, inserted as a frontispiece.
